A hand is pointing to a map of a mountainous region. The map features green shaded areas, likely representing parks or protected lands, and various roads and geographical features. The text "LEAVE NO TRACE HOT SPOTS" is overlaid in large white letters. The background shows a blurred view of a mountain range under a blue sky.

A fly fisherman wearing a green cap and waders stands in a river, casting a line. The background features a large, rocky mountain range under a clear blue sky. The water is calm with some ripples, and there are large rocks in the river. The overall scene is a beautiful outdoor setting for fishing.
